NPIC NOTICE
NO. 10-13

SECURITY
8 January 1975

PROTECTION OF INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION

1. In spite of considerable publicity recently focused upon the NPIC and CIA, employees are reminded of their continuing obligation to protect national intelligence information. The publication of these articles does not signal any relaxation of existing security practices.

2. Employees are cautioned not to comment on articles concerning NPIC and/or the Agency. This restriction is necessary not only for the protection of intelligence information and sources, but also to preclude our personnel from being identified as sources. Information disclosed in the media should be neither confirmed or denied.

3. If representatives of the media contact NPIC employees, they should be referred to the Security Branch on [redacted] during business hours.
